MEETS

CEDARVILLE AND NATIONALS

CEDARVILLE

MRunners braved some scary weather at the beginning, but it turned out to be a blast in the end.

Athletes of the meet:

Matt Percival, Maggie Fetterman, Ryan Gavenda, and Heleyna Tucker

NATIONALS

4th place isn't a bad way to wrap up a season if we do say so ourselves. So many records were crushed!

Athletes of the meet:

Cam Daniels, Cate Leonard, Thomas Lepper, and Chelsea Harvey

RACE ACROSS MICHIGAN

RAM RECAP

RAM 2024 was a success! We raised over $20,000 for Special Olympics Area 20, meeting our fundraising goal. We also finished the relay in under 24-hours. We couldn't have done it without our sponsors!

GIVING BLUEDAY UPDATES

PLUS A SURPRISE

After challenges and donor matches were added up, our fundraising total was $5,758.90. Thank you so much to everyone who donated! This money will help us keep club running accessible and affordable to anyone who wishes to participate!

Tent update btw heheheh

COMMUNITY SERVICE

SO MUCH HAS HAPPENED!

This past semester, MRunners have made survival kits for the homeless shelter, volunteered at Special Olympics Track practices, and received the Club Sports Community Service Award!

SOCIAL EVENTS

MOSTLY EATING AND RUNNING AS ALWAYS

SNACKING

Did somebody say Qdoba run? Or maybe Chocolate Milk 4x4? Why runners choose to eat a lot and then immediately race for fun will never make sense to me, but they all seemed to have a blast, so who am I to judge?

SKATING

Because being speedy on dry ground isn't enough, we enjoyed some ice skating for the day!

BANQUET

SUCH A FUN WAY TO SAY SUCH SAD GOODBYES

With pictures, dinner, Kahoot!, Paper Plate Awards, and Senior Speeches, what more of a send off could these wonderful people ask for?
